Greetings unto the Calontir's bold free men and women, from Thjothrekr and Yrsa, King and Queen of Calontir,

This war-making season has been an active one, but we are not yet finished. The Debatable Lands and the Pennsic War still await us. Continuing the tradition of wars past, We will travel to the Eastern shore and make Our stand alongside the Middle Kingdom in their most ancient of conflicts. Come armed with swords, spears, bows, beef jerky, water, or songs and Calontir will welcome your strength.

Let's make the war a fun one, before Autumn season calls Us back to Our halls to wait out the winter. We also would like to thank all of those who have given their support to Us and to the Kingdom. Your efforts speak well of us all.

Aug. 26	Tribal Revelries Lost Forest Warrensburg, MO
Sept. 9	Coronation Three Rivers St. Louis, MO

Unto the people of Calontir are sent greetings from Fernando and Lyriel, Crown Prince and Princess.

With the War of the Lilies safe behind us, the horns of war call from the east. Their Majesties have summoned the forces of Calontir to face the ancient foes at the Pennsic War. We shall stand beside them in the Debatable Lands. Will you join your comrades?

Three weeks after this great struggle, on the 9th of September, We hope you will join Us in a day of joyful celebration as we ascend the Falcon Thrones in the Barony of Three Rivers. At Our Coronation, We intend to meet with the Witan and each of the Peerage.

Yet even as we prepare for Our Coronation, word has come from northern lands that the forces of Northshield are preparing for battle. Just one week following Our Coronation they will try once more to overcome the might of the Falcon Host upon the fields of Armorgeddon. In the reign of Joe Angus and Phaedra ,the Northshield Griffin was bloodied and forced from the field, yet its heart is strong and it returns once more – eager for a another chance to show its mettle. People of Calontir, listen for the call to arms! Muster when you hear Our call, and the Falcon shall triumph once more.

Fernando and Lyriel

Greetings Good Gentles of Calontir.

I have been trying to gather my thoughts and think of something seneschal related for this letter all week. I have been completely unsuccessful. I would like, instead, to use my alotted space to say a few words in memory of my friend Countess Lenore.

I remember when I first met Lenore, at a fighter practice many summers ago. She was so fresh and friendly, and excited about the Society. Over the years I watched her grow and learn, teach and dance. From the moment I met her, there was never a time when she was not gracious.

Lenore was always busy doing a million different things, and she did all of them well. I marveled at her ability to always get everything done that she promised to do. If you helped her do something, she always thanked you. She made everyone feel important.

While Lenore's physical presence will no longer be with us, a bit of her spirit will remain in everyone who knew her. I thank her family for bringing such a wonderful woman into this world and for sharing her with the family of Calontir.

My heart goes out to Lenore's family, our SCA family, and to my friend Graf Luther.

May she rest in peace and live in our hearts.
Diana

Greetings Unto the Fighters and Populace Of Calontir From H.L. Connor O'Cleary Kingdom Earl Marshal

As a reminder Their Majesties, Their Highnesses and myself are still taking letters of intent for the selection of a successor for the Office of Kingdom Earl Marshal. If you are interested in this position please submit a letter of intent with a brief overview of your qualifications and a copy of your current membership card to TRM, TRH and myself before the end of this month.

Lilies went very well this year and I am pleased to report that the number of injuries was down considerably from last year with no hospital visits from on the field injuries reported, and only a few minor injuries which were quickly and efficiently taken care of by the Chirurgeons (and no I'm not counting the rabbit either). I would like to thank and congratulate both Count Sir Luther and H.L. Owain for doing a fine job as Marshal in Charge and Chirugeon in charge of this years war. Also a special thank you to all the assisting marshal's, water bearers, chirugeons, list people and cheering spectators for making this one of the best Lilies wars in memory.

With this month comes planning and travel to Pennsic War to the East. If you need a card issued or have another point of concern which must be addressed before the war you should get this done before arriving on site. I will be arriving before mid-week but if you plan on fighting before I arrive and need a card you may be out of luck if it is not taken care of before leaving Calontir, Another words get it done now.

I would like to point out that we are still experimenting with the single handed thrust force level on combat archery for melees. If you are unfamiliar with this experiment then simply put all combat archery missiles must strike with sufficient force equal to that of a single handed thrust to be good. This is a Kingdom wide experiment only and does not apply at Pennsic. Also in an effort to standardize spear thrusts throughout the Known World His Grace Sir Eringlen, Society Marshal, has been making announcements and demonstrations about good/light/excessive thrusts at InterKingdom events, if you have missed these announcements I suggest you ask your local marshal or see me at an event so you can make sure your calibration and/or thrusting power is within these standards.

As the Falcon Flies
Connor O'Cleary

Greetings unto the Populace of Calontir, from the Kingdom Treasurer.

I would first like to start by thanking Mistress Olga and HL Victoria for organizing the on line auction site to raise funds for the Royal Pavilion, then I would like to thank all those who donated to and purchased items from this auction. Finally, a special thanks to those who paid for their items at Lilies making it possible for the hard working Royal Pavilion Committee members to assemble the replacement of our beloved Purple Pavilion.

I would like to remind everyone that if they have questions about their quarterly reports to contact their Regional Reporting Deputies for help. Speaking of those Deputies, they will be contacting the local groups that report to them in reference to Inventory items. I have asked for all listed inventory to be reviewed and signed off by the local Treasurer and Seneschal so that we know exactly what we have out there. Thank you for your cooperation with this.

Reminder to all Treasurer's.. especially the ones that assumed their positions this year! CalonCon will be in Oct (site to be announced). It is my hope that CalonCon being moved to the fall will be a substantial asset to all our Treasurer's. Making it easier to prepare their Domesday's in Jan/Feb, for they will be able to have any questions or concerns addressed prior to the end of the year instead of after, as it has been. Look forward to seeing everyone in Oct, if you will not be able to attend please let me know.

In Service to the Dream,
Catherine Anne

Greetings and transfigurations from Lord Madoc Arundel, Gold Falcon Herald.

Well, as we all know, the summer does not run from Memorial Day to Labor Day in the SCA community - It runs from Lilies to Pennsic. Here we sit in the interim between the two, anxiously awaiting another opportunity to march the Calon army into battle.

Lilies War this year appeared to be an overwhelming success. I have to admit, due to mundane work constraints I only saw two days of the war; but I saw all eight nights and the rumors are still true. No one hosts a war like Calontir. As with many other of our traditions, Calontir is a kingdom of volunteers. There are several volunteers I would like to thank personally for their help this year. First of all, Lady Banba MacDermot without whom all would have been lost. Despite having previously committed to both the water bearers and the troll, she covered well over 2/3 of the responsibilities of Heralds Point on less than 1-day's notice. I would also like to thank Lady Alyx, Mistress Annys and their staff for single-handedly (can you say "single handedly" when referring to two heralds plus staff?) managing to run on-site consulting and accept on-site submissions Monday through Saturday in spite of previous commitments to RUSH and the KWA&S Symposium. Others who deserve thanks include Her Highness Lyriel for continuing to handle the role of "Herald-in-Charge" despite her new station with its associated responsibilities, Baron Modar for being a consulting herald and a personal counselor despite his duties as Baron of Forgotten Sea, Master Mikhail, Lady Rosaleng, Lady Banba, and several others for serving Their Majesties during courts "on the field", Lord Odo for scrambling to produce three cases of handbook updates, all the volunteers who signed up for the list field, the camp cries, the consulting table, etc., Lady Qamara and HL Gabrielle for ensuring that we "looked cool" during court, and especially the "Saker Singers" for making an entire College laugh when we most needed it. Despite the lack of communication, the holes in the planning process, and the untimely elevation of our Herald-in-Charge, you folks turned a bad situation into one which hid all of that from the populace - our guests.

With that behind us, we must look ahead. Pennsic War is coming up, and I hope that I will see Calontir heralds volunteering at Heralds Point for cries and consults there as well. Let's show the Known World that there really are heralds in Calontir (Thank you Richard. You know what I mean.)

Fall RUSH is coming up in October. Lady Eleanor, my Habicht Herald, is working with RUSH to ensure that as much of the core curriculum as possible is included on the docket. Please support her effort by volunteering to teach as well as by attending courses. Remember - you do not have to be a herald to take heraldic classes.

Also this Fall, with my term of office coming to an end, we will soon have the changeover of the Gold Falcon office to Master Mikhail. While we have not yet decided on a date, I know that Master Mikhail has already begun laying the groundwork for choosing his successor in order to perpetuate the continuity we've built in the College over the last few years. In accordance with the Heralds Handbook, I will be serving as the "drop-dead" after I step down until such time as Master Mikhail and Their Majesties select a new Eyas Herald. In addition, Master Gerald will be including me in a commenting group forming in the greater Kansas City area, so I look forward to continuing in an active role in the Calontir College after the transition.

Never let 'em see you sweat.

In service to the Dream, the Kingdom of Calontir, and the College of Arms,
I remain...

Lord Madoc Arundel, CACM, CT, PCS, Fyrdman of Calontir
Gold Falcon Herald

Greetings from the Minister of Arts and Sciences,

I am thrilled Their Majesties have given me the opportunity to serve as KMOA/S. Seeing the entries at Queen's Prize Tourney and the classes at Lilies have left me in awe of what you people are doing in the arts and sciences these days. Shajar has passed me an office that is very well run, for which I am very grateful, and she is going to continue to work on a pet project. Please send me any suggestions you have for this office and - lets all have fun with the arts and sciences!

Fionna

Warmest Greetings unto the Crown, the Coronet, and the Populace of Calontir, Lilies War is past and as Chirurgeon for the War I have many people to thank.

I want to thank the waterbearers and those who coordinated the waterbearing. Without you the fighters could not play as long and as hard as they do. To me, you are the unsung heroines and heroes of the war.

I want to thank the autocrats, Duchess Susannah Griffon, HL Comyn Hrothwyn, and HL Rigela Alicia la Placida. Besides putting on a great Lilies, your support, encouragement, and advice meant a great deal to me.

I want to thank the Earl Marshal, HL Connor O'Cleary, and the Marshal in Charge, Graf Luther Ambossfaust. Your patience and support made my job much easier.

I want to thank L Marion "Leyland" of Lee, L Anlon MacMatha, and HL Comyn Hrothwyn for your mentoring. I know with you, when I need it, I have a safe place to talk and to learn.

I want to thank the Chirurgeons who worked this war, L Marion "Leyland" of Lea, L Anlon MacMatha, L Katrin Bjarnarsdottir, L Caellainn, L Esther bat Moshe, L Anna der Stanoff von Wiesenfels, L Natalya Alekseya Vasilova Michael Zem Rgenbogen, Panthera Kallisa, and Beatrice de Palermo. I want to express my appreciation and the appreciation of those for whom you provided first aid services. Your service was invaluable. It was an honor to serve with you.

I want to thank all of those with whom I camped. You made sure I was fed and watered. You also made sure I got breaks when I needed them.

I want to thank Beatrice de Palermo. For those of you who do not know her, she is from the Barony of Three Rivers and has been playing in the SCA for about 10 months. This was her first event serving as an apprentice chirurgeon. She is also a Civil War Reenactor, and has provided first aid for them for about five years. She became my defacto deputy for the war. She was at every battle. When a job needed to be done she was there to do it. When my energy lagged, her energy served to buoy me up so that I could continue. She showed a maturity of one well beyond her years. Beatrice, thank you does not seem to be enough, you were the heroine of my war.

Finally, and on a different note, I need all chirurgeons to send me their names (SCA and modern), their addresses, their phone numbers, and their e-mail addresses (if you have one), so that I can update the Kingdom Chirurgeons List.

Yours in service,
Owain

Greetings unto the people of Calontir from your chronicler

Okay, I give up! Writing a month in advance just isn't working out for me. The best laid plans of mice and men... So for now, I'm going back to writing about what has already happened.

You may have noticed in the July issue mention of picking up the new edition of Kingdom Law at Lilies. Obviously, that didn't happen. Please look for that publication before the end of summer.

One thing that did happen is the distribution of the Mews at Lilies. I would like to thank Thaddius and Qamara for helping me with the distribution and everyone else for helping me save money on postage costs. We saved over $100.00 in postage!

I am pleased to announce that Mistress Sine, Ly. Tamar, and friends raised enough money at the Lilies Inn to fund the publication of one issue of the Calon Scrolls. Yet another exciting Calontir publication to look for in the next few months! Special thanks to everyone who helped with this project, both by volunteering to work, and by eating at the inn. Please keep up the good work.

Now on to more mundane issues.

If your contact information is listed, or should be listed in the Mews, it is your responsibility to make sure the information is correct and that your superior officer also has the correct information. I can't do anything to remedy the situation if I don't know there is a problem.

If you are listed under the seneschal directory, it is your responsibility to contact Ly. Diana and Ly Winnifred concerning updates. I get a listing from them every month and that is what is used for publications. All corrections need to go through them.

I cannot keep track of all the comings and goings of deputies to every kingdom office. I rely on the kingdom officers to give me updates to that information. That means you need to give them your information. They generally do a very good job of keeping listings current and getting that information to me. I appreciate when people contact me directly with corrective information, but I just want to make sure to keep all concerned parties in the loop.

All kingdom events must first be scheduled through the Reeve, Ly Issabell. Likewise, if you need to cancel your event for some reason, you need to contact her too.

As for event flyers, it is not my responsibility to make sure you get them in on time. As I have said before, there is now a $50.00 late fee, and it is being enforced. In addition, there has been an increase of the number of groups I have had to track down to see if they are sending event flyers at all. Please remember, if a flyer for your event is not published in the Mews at least once, no official business can be done there.

And finally, a message for local chroniclers: I am hoping to have a warrant list done soon. If you are not sending a copy of your newsletter to both Ly. Conna and myself, you are not doing your job completely and you will not be warranted.

In service,
Ariel

Greetings unto the good gentles of Calontir from Her Ladyship Morgan Skeene, Calontir Kingdom Reeve

After nearly 4 years of serving as Reeve, it is time to pass the official Kingdom calendar on to new hands. I'd like to thank Mistress Elasait and Her Excellency Diana, under whom I have served, for their guidance, support--and most of all--patience!

I am pleased to announce that Lady Issabell St. Charles has been chosen as my replacement. Please see her contact information elsewhere in the Mews. I wish her the best of luck, and I know that all Calontir seneschals and autocrats will be as kind to her as they have been to me. Thank you for this opportunity to serve.

Morgan

Greeting to all this day from Roselyn of Aberdeen, Kingdom Minister of Children.

The warm days of summer are upon us bringing with it the preparation of many for the annual expedition to those lands in the east. Go with God, and may you have pleasant adventures. If you take with you the smallest and youngest of Calontir, remember well, they need much caring. A war is a great distraction, so many new sights, sounds, and people. It can be quite overwhelming to the young.

Recently I had to pleasure of speaking with several greatly skilled Gentles about an idea of " mentoring a teen for a day" at the next Lilies. I would ask any and all who are skilled in any of the diverse Arts & Sciences to contact me so that I might begin to compile a catalog of "mentors". In this way, any teen coming to me and expressing a particular interest might be directed towards you to learn your skill. I would also like to ask those teen of our Kingdom to send me ideas of what kinds of skills you might wish to learn. Many thanks to any who might wish to assist our teens so that they too might more enjoy events.

It was also brought to my attention at Lilies that a group of families with very small children (those not yet old enough to attend MOC activities) might be in need of some assistance. While this office is not equipped to offer assistance in this area, those with nestlings might benefit from working together to form some sort of cooperative in which they take turns with watching the young while the others take classes or participate in other activities. A simple sign-up sheet at Troll might accomplish this. This way those with similar needs might find each other and work something mutually beneficial to all. This is but a suggestion, I am in no way asking that this be done. It is a decision for the Event Autocrat.

I would again make a plea for any interested in becoming a deputy to the KMOC, this is an excellent time to speak of it. I am in sore need of one who might wish to work with the Children of Calontir.

In Service to the Falcon Throne, respectfully submitted,
Roselyn of Aberdeen

Greetings are sent unto the people of Calontir, from Alethea Charle, your friendly Falcon Signet,

The second Scribal Symposium was held at the War Maneuvers in Standing Stones, and although I am writing this early (and it actually hasn't happened yet) I am sure it was a great success. The interest I have seen for C&I in this Kingdom appears to be growing at an encouraging rate and I am ecstatic. Thank you to all the people who have been teaching and encouraging the scribes throughout the Kingdom.

Here, again, is a friendly reminder to the Scribes who have done GOA or above scrolls for the Kingdom to make a couple of copies of each of your pieces before you give them to the Crown for delivery. It is a very good idea to keep a portfolio of your work. A portfolio shows you the improvements you make as you do more scrolls. It also allows you to seek critiques of your work, without actually giving anything away (like who's getting what award). Also, I would greatly appreciate receiving a copy of these scrolls to add to the records kept by my office.

Their Highnesses have chosen a Royal Scribe for Their Reign. Her name is Slaine ni Chairain and it will be her first time in this office. Please, give her a call and offer her your support. I am informed that Their Highnesses will be focusing on the 15th century during Reign. I encourage any scribe who is interested in helping out to research that time period and perhaps make some generic boarders which can be used by Their scribe in completing scrolls. Some examples would be a border of canthus leaves, or ivy leaves. Once you have done a little research many ideas should come to you. Feel free to contact me if you need any advice or information of where to look for examples.

AUGUST'S HELPFUL HINT:
Many of the pigments used for paint in the Middle ages were toxic as well as difficult to make/obtain. To be honest, many of us are not able or interested in going to the trouble of making them in order to paint a scroll. Therefore, we look for modern equivalents which look like the ones used in period, are affordable, and non-toxic. I recommend gouache paints. They have the same opacity as period pigments, are water-soluble and can be mixed and blended much easier than latex or egg tempera paints. There are vast ranges of potential colors, all of which can be mixed by the scribe at the time of need and saved for another time. Once dried they can be reconstituted as needed by simply adding water. And, they won't poison you if you say, accidentally, licked your brush to bring it to a nice point. The best colors to start with are White, Black, Spectrum Yellow, Spectrum Red, and Indigo Blue. With these colors you can mix almost any color you like. I don't recommend getting carried away when buying paints, as these paints are not particularly cheap. They will, however, last a long, long time. You will also need several plastic palates to keep your mixed paints on. Be sure to store them in an enclosed space when you are not using them, because they are great dust magnates.

In service to Calontir,

Greetings Unto Calontir from HL Victoria of Ard na Sidhe,

Well, two years have gone by and TRM and I are looking for my replacement to represent our fair Kingdom on the Medieval Advisory Committee (formerly know as the Interkingdom Advisory Committee). This group meets via email to discuss various proposals as they relate to the Society as a whole and our Kingdoms in particular. An agenda is proposed and decisions are forwarded to the Society Seneschal for further action, if any.

If you are interested in this position or have any questions please feel free to contact me via the means listed elsewhere in this Mews.

In Service Always,
Tori

Unto the populace of Calontir does HL Seraphima laroslava, next year's Lilies Autocrat, send greetings of health and good fortune.

Zdrastootiye! (Hello!)
Fighting, classes, fun in the water (the lake -- not from the sky), more fighting, fireworks, dancing... what does all this lead to??? Lilies!!!!!! And you all thought it was too early to think of next year's Lilies. Not so! It's never too early to think of next year. (How many days is it? Well, less than 365!)

For those of you who have already spoken to me about volunteering, please send me an e'mail as to what you volunteered for (especially if you didn't see me write it down). That way, we both have it in writing. For those of you who are thinking of volunteering... it's never too late (unless the event is over) and it's never too early ... send me an e'mail.
I plan on having a quick staff meeting at Kris Kinder. There will be more on it later (of course).

There has been some confusion on how to get a hold of me. I am in the Barony of Coeur d'Ennui and you can contact me at:
Lynn Reed-Kendall
4505 NW 86th St #21

Until then, maee droozya (my friends),
In Service to Crown and Kingdom.

Greetings from the Kingdom Cook's Guild

The following are the minutes of the organizational meeting held at Lilies this year.

Three ways to notify people about upcoming meetings: 1) Notification via e-mail, 2) Publication in the Mews, or 3) Give five preaddressed, prestamped non-picture postcards to the guildhead. I will mail them out (approx) three weeks before each meeting.

Decided our year would begin and end with Lilies, and settled on the following three year plan: - The first year focuses on discussion. There are a multitude of topics available, and topics for the next meeting may be determined by questions raised at the current meeting. - The second year we add potlucks to our meetings. With alphabet assignments changed on a rotating basis with regards to the type of dish to bring. - The third year we start taking part in special events, such as cooking for the hospitality parties at Pennsic or Estrella or other major wars. Participating in demos. Sponsoring cooking competitions.

Please remember - membership is free, just an interest in medieval cooking is all that is required. We will try and grab a small corner and hold meetings at these events: Sept 9th Coronation, Sept 23 Mag Mor, Sept 30 Coeur d'Ennui, Oct 7th RUSH, Oct 21rst Standing Stones.
Sincerely, Your Guildhead
Kateryn de Develyn

Demo in Colorado

There will be a demo of the SCA at the international Longspeak Scottish Highland Games Festival, in Estes Park, Colorado(http://www.scotfest.com/).
This demo will be set up and ready to go on Friday, September 8th and run through the 10th of September. Hours for the demo are: 12noon to 5pm on Friday, 9am-5pm both Saturday and Sunday

Greetings are warmly extended to the populace of Calontir and all others who may read these letters from Lady Eleanor ferch Rhiwallon, co-coordinator for the year's Lilies Man-at-Arms Breakfast for List Support Personnel. I pray this missive finds everyone well and safe from the summer heat that blasts these falcon lands.

I wish to thank all of the men-at-arms who contributed to this year's function, either by donating, money, time, or both. As Lord Henry from Grimfells kept saying all Saturday morning, "Teeeeeeeaaaaaaammmm," and we all know the Calon Army is the ultimate example of team, whether fighting on the battlefield or cooking breakfast. Many thanks also to the Baronage and Populace of Three Rivers for the generous donation of treats to accompany breakfast. It added the perfect finishing touch. Last, but not least, many, many thanks to Her Ladyship Lina for playing site coordinator/head wrangler during the week. We couldn't have done it without her!

Ever in humble service,
Eleanor

In memory of Countess Lenore...

Remembrance
With sadness tinged lips, I speak to you of joys
Of gentle grace
Of joyous mirth
Of gladdest spirit

In her steps we found learning
In her words wisdom
In her presence peace

Take solace in our knowing her
Garner strength that we shall see her again
Let her spirit fill us all with her gifts

Wife
Sister
Friend

Feel the joy she gave to all of us
And rejoice
For we all were lucky to have know her

Today I leave my grief
And take with me only joy
For the knowing that I am the lucky one.
